

Faten Salama

Formerly of Egypt in Workshop & Show

March 26-28, 2010

Kalamazoo, Michigan

Presented by the West Michigan School of Middle Eastern Dance, LLC

Faten began dancing at 11 years of age when she was selected to attend the first-ever national folk troupe of Egypt Dance School for Children. The training conducted with the assistance of Russian teachers included classical ballet, Oriental, and character dance. As a group dancer for audiences of over 5,000 Faten started her dream career as a member of the Egyptian Folkloric Troupe. She traveled with the troupe all over the world performing for Head of States, ambassadors, and royalty. It is an honor and privilege to have Faten, a master teacher, for the first time in the Mid-West. Faten will be teaching on Friday, how to put folkloric steps into Oriental; on Saturday Saidi and Oriental; and on Sunday Nubian.
